Modern reflexology combines art and science to allow the body to relax and heal itself.

We are pleased to offer one of the most unique reflexology education programs in the country—a 350+ hour program featuring:

Hands On Approach * Foot reflexology * Hand Reflexology * Medically based training * Clinical Sessions * Adjunct Therapies * History and Theory * Much, much, more!

The program is taught by Paula S. Stone, nationally recognized master reflexologist, a leading educator in the field of modern reflexology, and author of “Therapeutic Reflexology: A Step-by-Step Guide to Professional Competence,” a peer-reviewed textbook for professional training in reflexology.
